

Bittersweet Harvest: The Bracero Program, 1942-1964
August 21, 2010-October 31, 2010
Programming Calendar
(last updated 3/22/10)

Event Name	Description	Date/Time	Location	Notes
Docent Training	Bilingual and non-bilingual volunteers will be trained to serve as exhibition docents and gallery facilitators for groups of 5 or more people.	Late August	Broome Library, 1320	In collaboration with Ana Bermudez and Melissa.
Unveiling Event	Exhibit celebration inviting braceros and their families, to celebrate their contributions to US and Mexican history with the campus and community at large. Food and music.	Confirmed for Thursday, September 8, from 7-9	Broome Library, 1320	Possible music choices, Manuel Unzueta or Xavier Montes
Family Day	Collaboration with Migrant Ed to bring families and their children to campus on a Saturday to visit the exhibit. Food, music, childrens' games.	Saturday, September 11 th 12-3?	Library and Library Courtyard	Possible music choices, Manuel Unzueta or Xavier Montes Funding: Smithsonian Community Grant
Paul Flores	Nationally recognized Chicano poet-will prepare students by providing a workshop on spoken work and public speaking and/or understanding the Chicano performance in poetry as a means for social justice. He will also MC a Poetry Slam event where CI students will perform their poetry. He will also conduct a similar workshop with the youth at Café on A. one at CI and one Café at A.	Confirmed for September 23 and 24 th	Student Union, Café on A
Dolores Huerta	Former UFW Vice President who continues to work tirelessly developing leaders, advocating for working poor, women and children.	Confirmed for September 16th	TBD	MEChA and CFA are co-sponsoring this event.
National Speaker/Panelists	A nationally recognized guest speaker on the Bracero Program will be invited to speak about the history and legacy of the program and how this relates to the ongoing debate about immigration reform.	Confirmed for Thursday, October 7, 2010,	TBD	Matt Garcia?
Documentary	We will screen the new documentary on	Confirmed for	TBD

Screening & Discussion	the Bracero Program titled, "Harvest of Loneliness."The filmmakers will facilitate a discussion after the movie.	Thursday, Sept. 30th
Ex-braceros event	This event will focus on ex-braceros who are members of the " Alianza de Exbraccros Del Norte, 1942-1964" who are fighting to reclaim 10% of their wages taken from their paychecks during their participation in the bracero program	Late October	TBD	