State nears reality in amended measure

Desmond Revue wows Chaffey!

"Varieties" top hit again!

Amidst a cheering throng of 1000 strong Chaffey College students, jamming full their auditorium to standing room capacity, State College's Varieties troupe, headed yesterday by Danny Desmond, continuously brought the house down yesterday, act after act.

Each entertainer was lustily applauded back on stage for several encores. Chaffey students and faculty testified that it was the "best student show ever to reach the Ontario college."

Emcee Danny Desmond lined up the show which included such fine stage personalities as Nyda Neutzman, semi-classical singer, Joy Healy, tap dancer, Jim Goddard and Sam Sebby, comedy skit duo, Dee Ariene, pop singer, and Professor Norman, magician extraordinaire.

States swing band, under the baton of Carl Bauman, included Richard Charles and Leonard Niehaus, alto; Ed Anderson and Dick Sidley, trumpet; Max Heath, trombone; Nate Capalbo, bass; Julie Omerberg, piano; and Leland Scott, drums.

Following the performance, the State contingent was invited to a luncheon given by the Chaffey hosts.

Danny Desmond emceed top "Varieties" show that packed house at Chaffey College, Ontario.

Have you been photographed?

All senior portraits have been scheduled, for Pitchfork, with the last batch to be taken on next Friday. For those who were unable to make their appointed time, new appointments were made wherever possible. It is extremely important for those who have not been photographed yet to be sure and do so next week or to contact Dick Peterson in B-2 immediately. In the cases of those being absolutely unable to make any hours between 11 and 2 next week, special arrangements can be made to have the pictures taken during the Easter Vacation Week.

Legislative action for State Bill underway in final formal procedure

SACRAMENTO, April 1: — Last night, the Senate Education Committee voted unanimous approval for a Los Angeles State College of Applied Arts and Sciences.

Assembly bill 111 was presented by Assemblyman Glenard P. Lipscomb, L.A. Following Lipscomb's presentation, Roy E. Simpson, Superintendent of Public Instruction, California State Department of Education, added amendments which gave to the State full control and support of the new institution. Mechanics of operation will follow along previously established State College lines. Curricula needs of all groups will continue to be met.

Senator Chris N. Jespersion, chairman of the Senate Education Committee and author of the State College bill, commended Simpson, Douglass, Petersen, Stoddard, Lipscomb, the University of California, and all other parties concerned in the compromise.

Entertainment galore keynotes "Spring Swing"

Ben Strasser and his Lamp-lighters will provide the music for the Junior Class dance which will be held tomorrow night, Saturday, April 2.

Ross Burdick, entertainment chairman has several excellent vocalists lined up to provide the entertainment. Heading the list are Crystal Records stars Kathy Mann and Hugh Cameron. Miss Mann has sung with such top flight musical organizations as Charlie Spivak's orchestra, and has appeared on Arthur Godfrey's Showcase and the Alan Young Show. The vocalizers, a local group featuring Fred Faraone, Bill Ott and Jerry Masterson, will continue with bop singer Chuck Gordon to complete the show.

Bids thus far sold indicate that the affair will be a huge success. If you've not yet bought — HURRY.

Full legislative procedure is still in store for the measure. The bill must next pass the Senate, receive consideration and approval of the Assembly Education Committee, and finally pass through the Assembly.

Provisions for a new campus will be met upon completion of legislative action. The Los Angeles City College will remain a junior college on the present site.

Representing State College at the hearing were Dr. Aubrey A. Douglass, Associate Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. P. Victor Petersen, State College President, Dr. Hugh Brown, Mr. Dave Bryant, Max Wolf, State's student body prexy, Harold Heywood, President of C.S.T.A., southern section, and Robert S. Miner, executive editor, College Times.

The College Times commends this action and believes it will prove to the mutual benefit and satisfaction of all concerned.
