Junior Class Prom Held Next Week

Semi-formal held at Roosevelt Hotel

The big night is fast approaching! Plans for the Junior Promenade have been completed and all that remains is for the huge affair to take place.

Bids have been on sale since Tuesday and will continue till the night of the 13th. Just in case you haven't been backed against a wall and sold a bid or haven't been able to find a salesman (the bids are on sale all day in Bungalow 2) they will be available at the door the night of the dance.

Barclay Hood, guiding light of the Junior Class, was notified by Ted Kovach and Ross Burdick of some fine entertainment for the event, including Barry McCormick, 10 year old wizard of the drums and TV star and the brand new Ted Kovach Trio.

Verne Rowe and his orchestra will furnish danceable music for the Prom. Rowe, formerly with Les Brown and other name bands, features the dreamy ballads of pert Shirley Gordon and The Notables in addition to his "makes you wanna dance" music.

Attention is called to the fact that the dance is a semi-formal affair, meaning formals for the girls and suits for the men. A "no corsage" policy has been set. The date is January 13, time 8:30 and place is the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel.

Intermission will feature the announcement of the Junior Prom Queen. Many lovely gifts for the queen will be presented and then she and her escort will be guest of Freddy Martin and the Palladium for an evening of dining and dancing at a later date.

State Varieties at El Camino

State College Varieties is scheduled to be revived tomorrow when an appearance at El Camino begins a series of appearances at various junior colleges in the Southland. As in the past, the show is to acquaint local schools with LASC, and to foster intercollegiate good will.

The show this year includes some of the top entertainers of the Varieties which covered so many junior colleges in its successful campaign last year. Among the stars is Art Duncan, popular singer and dancer who has been with the leading night clubs and theaters on the Pacific Coast, as well as with Jack "Open the Door Richard" McVae. Art is soon to be seen on television.

Also appearing will be another of our own State students, Natividad Vacio, veteran of many movies, who sings and plays his guitar. Professor Norman will be there to reach into his bag of tricks once again and once more mystify the audience with his deceptive art of prestidigitation. Popular and semi-classic singer Dolores Blackstone will perform also.

This show at El Camino is the first in a second series of State College Varieties, and is again under the direction of Danny Desmond who will act as MC, and who has been responsible for reorganizing this year's troupe.

State makes video debut in January

Los Angeles State College finds itself in the public eye next January when "Your Campus" is scheduled to come to view over N.B.C. Television.

The program, written, produced and directed by Mr. Desmond in collaboration with his State College television class, presents to the public Los Angeles State College and is both humorous and educational. The entire cast is composed of State College personnel.

Polls open Tuesday for spring term

Offices holders will be elected next week to serve the student body for the spring semester. Al Baron, election commissioner, predicts a heavy turnout due to the highly contested positions which are open. Candidates vieing for offices total fifteen according to applications

Track season to open soon

Coach Harry Campbell has approximately sixteen meets lined up for the black and gold track team this coming season and the squad will travel to both the Santa Barbara and Fresno Relays with an outside chance of a relay team journeying to Des Moines, Iowa for the Drake Relays.

The State thinclads have dual meets lined up with Cal Tech, Cal Poly, Oxy and Loyola among others.

Practice will start the latter part of February and all aspirants should watch the College Times for the exact date.

Another strong possibility for the coming semester is the inaugurating of State's initial baseball team. Director of Athletics, Mr. Ferron C. Losee said the chances are good but a few problems have yet to be ironed out.

If the ball club does become a reality this spring the practices will probably be held at the Griffith Park diamonds in the afternoon with games being arranged against local colleges such as Oxy, Redlands and Loyola. The coach and time of the first practice will be announced at a later date.

There will be an important CSTA meeting held next Tuesday, January 10 from 3-5 PM in the Science Lecture Hall, Room 201. The purpose of the meeting will be to elect officers for the coming semester. A motion picture will also be shown.

submitted to date.

Bob Miner, former editor of the College Times and member of the Rho Delta Chi, will be in the race for A.S.B. vice-president along with Phi Delta Harryry Hale, business manager of the Pitchfork. Men's Representative aspirants include Sam Gumina, incumbent of the office and Bill Nequette. Campaigning for the position of Senior Class prexy are Al Anderson, Rally Commissioner; Fred "Dutch" Holland, Public Relations Director of C. S. T. A. and Duff Means, senior class rep-at-large. Rudolph Komick and Roderick McLendon will be on the ballot for vice-president of the Senior Class. So far, Fred Charnes is the lone contestor for the office of Senior Class Public Relations Chairman.

Vieing for the Junior Class presidency are Barclay J. Hood, incumbent of the office; Robert Docter; and Leo Flanagan, Pitchfork staff. Elaine Baron and Marty Halperin are as yet uncontested for the Junior Class vice-president and treasurer respectively.

Polls will be open Tuesday and Wednesday, January 10 and 11.

Grads hold dance Wednesday evening

The graduating seniors are holding their dinner-dance Wednesday, Jan. 11, at 7:30 p. m. stated Johnny Johnston, Senior Class prexy. To be held at Eatons, one block south of Laurel Canyon on Ventura and Radford, the dinner will be followed at 9:30 to 12:30 by dancing to the thirteen piece State College band. Price of the dinner is reasonably set at $2.25 per plate. The affair is semi-formal and February seniors are urged to come stag or drag.

Tickets may be purchased from Miss Arnold in Ad. 219 this week. Johnston further stated that the red bus at Hollywood and Vine will deliver those in need of transportation right to the door.

Larry Bordan

Back to the grind . . . Xmas spirits and New Year's excess acidities a memory. And 1950 . . . I wonder what it holds in store. Those things which we plan and hope for now. Will they materialize? Dreams, aspirations . . . How much confidence do you have in yourself? How right is right?

A grave problem has arisen. Doesn't it always?—However, this is so pertinent and concerns the student body to such a great extent that an immediate solution is necessary.

There has been talk that College Times should become a bi-weekly publication. Reason for this arrangement is so that there would be a paper on this campus every day. On the surface this may sound very good but I for one will never be sold on the worth of such an arrangement. In short, it boils down to selling you students out. . . . I'll elaborate a little.

In the first place we have about 2500 students of which 800 are ASB members and maybe 900 fulltime day students. In colleges with twice this enrollment it is seldom that there is more than one publication a week. (I think the University of Alabama will serve as one slight example.) Why? Because once a week allows for adequate news coverage, and also, the added expense is not such that it's merited.

Why should State students be forced to allocate an unjust amount of their money which could be spent on activities which would give you something for your money. I can safely guarantee that increasing this paper to a bi-weekly publication would cost the student body an added $1000 per semester—if it were possible to acquire the additional ads which would be necessary.

Now then, just who is College Times supposed to serve? In the proposed plan we would be printing City College news and vice versa. Why? I could tell you but it'd take a few pages, and besides I've said it all before.

Well, it's up to you. You're paying and have a right to speak for the way your money is spent.

Let's do what's right.

Senior Class President

AL ANDERSON

Platform: I believe that there is only one side to the controversy that L.A. State College currently faces. That side is that of continued independence of State College, the further recognition of our school as an independent organization and continuing efforts to seek recognition as such.

I also believe that there must be cooperation between the two schools but I do not believe that this cooperation should mean or be construed as meaning that L.A. State College may in any way be sublimated to the Junior College.

I believe that the two schools may cooperate in many ways and in particular, in that manner as set up by "Joint Activities Committee" in their "Code of Operation."

In brief, I believe that cooperation is necessary but that it must not be used as a tool to further other interests.

FREDERICK E. HOLLAND

Platform: (1) Consolidate the Senior Class to a much greater extent by: Sponsoring inter-class competition between Juniors and Seniors; creating more committees to plan greater social activities, thereby making it possible for more seniors to be active; keeping closer contact with all seniors through more interesting meetings and better utilization of the College Times. (2) Build more Senior tradition through: Annual lecture or other cultural program; Senior Day on campus; usable and lasting gifts to the school; Annual Junior-Senior Day, where friendly rivalry is the order of the day. (3) Active participation on the Student Body Executive Council. (4) Help make this a truly "great" State College. (5) Produce the best Senior Prom in the history of L.A.S.C.

DUFF DOUGLAS MEANS

Platform: To organize the seniors of L.A. State College into a solid, smooth working group which can further the tradition of our school and our class.

SENIOR CLASS VICE PRESIDENT

RUDOLPH A. KOMICK

Platform: A separate graduation! More school spirit!

RODERICK A. McLENDON

Platform: To publicize the activities of the Senior Class in such a manner that Southern California in particular, and other areas in general, will know who and what an "L.A. State College Senior" is, and will recognize him as an alumnus. Also, to support the class officers in the various senior class activities. Greater participation of Seniors in class activities. A Bigger and Better "State College!"

Senior Class Public Relations

FRED S. CHARNES

Platform: Expansion of activities and facilities for Los Angeles State College seniors.

Student candidates cite platforms

Student Body Vice President

HARRY F. HALE

Platform: Efficient function of commissions. More information and advice consulting from and to student body.

ROBERT S. MINER

Platform: Better organization of the cabinet. An all-out effort to give to State College the type of organization which demands the respect of all!

Junior Class President

ROBERT DOCTER

Platform: If elected to the office of Junior Class President, my job would be two fold: (1) Chairman of activities for the Junior class; (2) Member of the Executive Council of the Associated Students. The office therefore requires two platforms. Platform for the Junior class: (1) A complete and successful realization of class desires concerning activities of the group. Such as: Junior Prom; Class Day; Intramural athletics; other intramural activity, etc.

(2) A survey of Junior Class activities at other California State Colleges, and other universities and colleges in this immediate metropolitan vicinity. This survey would aid us in planning our class activities by making us aware of the activities of other schools.

Platform as Executive Council member: (1) Assume that there are as many colleges on this campus as is necessary to afford a good complete education for the students. Unite the Associated Student organizations on the campus into one efficient harmonious group. (2) A variation of the "Pepperdine plan" to solve the parking ticket problem around this campus.

LEO FRANCIS FLANAGAN

Platform: No integration between State College and City College!

BARCLAY J. HOOD, incumbent

Platform: To maintain a separate student body of L.A.S.C. and to work for better cooperation between Junior and Senior classes to make a greater L.A.S.C. student body.

Center Stage

with Sam Sebby

The theatre season in greater Los Angeles is going along with much activity. Every stage is full but there are seats that sit alone. In other words the jingling sounds of would-be theatre-goers are confined to bread and egg buying. It's the same way during, and after Xmas each year. But let's look at the quality of the shows on the western boards. When the curtain came up on "HONEST JOHN" at the Las Palmas Theatre, Buddy Ebsen, a musical comedy hooper, became a straight actor. There was no motivation for dancing within the confines of the plot. All in all, he did an honest job as "Honest John." The play revolves around a young married man who is a builder and designer. He gets mixed up in some crooked political arrangements and has a hard time holding on to his honest character. The standout in the cast was Virginia Vincent as "Red Devil" the nymphomaniac. She has a consistent and vital characterization. Watch her, she'll be a star in the future.

Then, the interplay between James Burke and Henry Corden must be brought up for praise; it is excellent. Mr. Burke is known by most of us as a friendly Irish cop. That's his stock character in pictures. He seemed to enjoy his role of Commissioner Michael Malloy in this production because he turned in better than fair performance. Henry Corden is probably the most up and coming extreme-character man on the Los Angeles theatre scene. His sense of timing is perfect; and he pulled laugh after laugh from the audience. So, if you attend the Las Palmas, you can be sure that Ebsen, Burke, Vincent, and Corden will entertain you properly. William Talman's direction doesn't help the play much and in the cop race toward the end of the play his direction is downright bad. The new play was written by Buddy Ebsen and could use a rewrite job.

THE TIME HAS COME, with vacation behind us, to turn our thoughts to coming campus productions: There are two in number. By name, "Thunder Rock," directed by Doug Weston, and "Little Foxes," with Eunice Walker cracking the whip. Tall, (6'6") deep-voiced Doug won last year's best directors award; he has directed everything from Shakespeare to originals, and has won acclaim thereby. Eunice Walker has not as yet won acclaim as a director, although she was agreed upon as the best supporting actress last year, but there can be no doubt that she is the prettiest State College director this semester. "Thunder Rock" will be seen on the Little Theatre stage, while "Little Foxes" will be seen on the Bungalow Stage, (B16). Both are worthy plays deserving of your attendance. In case you did not know, State College has one of the best drama departments in the nation. More soon.

Men's Rep.

SAM GUMINA Jr., incumbent

Platform: Progressive student body government for the betterment of our school and our students.

WILLIAM NEQUETTE

Platform: A conscientious and sincere desire to better men's activities—and a desire for cooperation with L.C.C. men's activities.

Junior Class Vice President

ELAINE R. BARON

Platform: If I am elected I will strive for more cooperation and school spirit among the Junior Class.

Social notes

Mr. Richard Charles, State College music instructor, was presented with an early Christmas present when his wife gave birth to the Charles' first child, a boy, Dec. 17. The baby was named Richard Edward Charles Jr.

Johnny Johnston, Senior class president, recently announced his engagement to Jean Schumacher, former State College education major. Jean completed her post graduate work last semester and received a secondary education credential and is now teaching up north. Wedding plans indicate a late August ceremony.

Locals meet leaping La Verne Leopards

Diablos primed for 1950 casaba opener

Come next Tuesday, the Black and Gold Cagers of State College invades La Verne's gym for a casaba tilt with the Leopards. Last season these teams split, each winning on their home floor.

The season records against collegiate competition for both teams is not too rosy for either team. The State five has dropped games to Occidental, Whittier, and Cal Tech of the Southern California Intercollegiate Conference and Chapman. The lone collegiate victory was against Pomona, 45-44. In AAU competition the Diablos won 4 while dropping 2. One game by 3 points and the other by 4. But this is 1950 and a new leaf is going to be turned over.

La Verne has dropped 8 games while winning but two. La Verne went on a barnstorming tour up in the great Northwest and in Northern California. Some of the teams that the Leaping Leopards met were St. Martin's College in Olympia, Washington, Linfield College in Oregon, Wenatchee Junior College, Wenatchee, Washington, Cal Aggies, Chico State, Yuba College, and Sacramento State College.

La Verne still has Ace Guard Darryl Brandt back to harness the Diablos with his accurate shooting. However, the other playing member of the family, L. Brandt, graduated. La Verne will probably start Bill Landis and Dick Peterson at forwards, Bill O'Neil at center, and Darryl Brandt and Ralph Miller at guards. The Shawmen will probably start Jack Sparks and Wayne Scott at forwards, Dick Green at Center, and Marv Gurian and Bill McNaught at guards.

party at the home of Doris Ray, corresponding secretary, for the twenty-one members and sponsors. Baked ham, potatoes and all the trimmings were served. Presents were then exchanged and the group adjourned.

Alice Durgin, treasurer, is planning a shower for Opal McIntyre, who is to be married on January 27. The shower will be held on Sunday, Jan. 8, from 3-5 at Alice's home.

The State College Dance Band, under the direction of Mr. Richard Charles, will provide the music for a series of on-campus afternoon sport-dances, sponsored by Gamma Omicron Kappa and the Music Department.

The dances will be held every two weeks throughout the spring semester in the Student Union, from 4 to 6 p.m. The admission price will remain at twenty-five cents per person as set at the "Devils' Revel" held last November.

Feb. 8., Mar. 1, 15, 27, Apr.— and May (Wed.) are the dates of the first dances.

This dance series represents an innovation in collegiate dances, since a dance featuring "live" music usually costs much more than the low cost presented to students on this campus, made possible because members of the band are donating their time for your entertainment.

Spotlight on Sports

Arthur Hoffman
Sports Editor

Brother, they will be talking about the 1950 Rose Bowl Classic for the next century. Had California done this of if this didn't happen or if so and so would have played would this have changed the complexion of the game. It might have and then it might not have. But let's not cry over spilt milk. The game is over through the accurate toe effort of Jimmy Hague and Hague or do you prefer the liquid kind Haig & Haig.

At any rate the 100,963 fans saw, the first type do his stuff while some had some of the second kind or a reasonable facsimile thereof. The crowd was treated to a superlative demonstration of marching by the 120 piece band of the Buckeyes, who were really sensational. If you thought Michigan's Band was good you should have seen the Black Coated Buckeyes.

The crowd at the Arroyo Seco Bowl far outdistanced the other New Year's Day Classics. The Sugar Bowl with 82,000 plus, the Cotton with 75,000 plus, and the Orange Bowl with 64,000 plus were next in line in attendance. The smallest crowd well offhand I'll say the Ice Bowl with the University of Alaska 3 and the "Alan" Ladd Air Force Base Flyers 0. That score might indicate the number of people.

Now let's get back to basketball, the State Quintet engaged in a few casaba tilts over the Christmas Holidays. In the first game the Shawman traveled to Santa Barbara and lost to the Gauchos 53-37. This was followed by some AAU tilts during the 2 week span. The Black and Gold ran into the strong arms of the Law and dropped a close tilt to the powerful Los Angeles Police Force 47-44. Dick Green and Jack Sparks tied with high point honors with 15 points each. They almost got the best of L.A.'s Finest. The locals fell before Rees and Son 58-54 in another tight squeeze. Last week the Diablos hit the win column 55-53 edging the Young Russian C.A.

Let's doff our hat to Jim "Ohio St." Hanley, the "Old Pro" and managing Editor, who walked off with the Post Season Bowl guessing contest. Jim called 8 out of 9 missing only Texas Tech vs. San Jose St., Rasin Bowl affair. Nobody was even close to Jim's picks. He was the only crystal gazer picking Ohio State.

For you tennis fans its Pancho Gonzalez vs. Big Jake Kramer at the Pan Pacific next Monday and Tuesday. You can get a

Cage menu for 1950 revealed

With seven collegiate games already having been played on the 1949 side of the schedule, the following are the remaining home and away games on the 1950 part of the slate.

- Jan. 10 La Verne at LaVerne
- Jan. 14 Pomona at Pomona
- Jan. 17 San Diego at San Diego
- Jan. 31 Santa Barbara at Los Angeles
- Feb. 7 La Verne at Los Angeles
- Feb. 7 Cal Tech at Los Angeles
- Feb. 11 Westmont at Santa Barbara
- Feb. 14 Chapman at Chapman
- Feb. 16 Cal Poly (San Dimas) at LA
- Feb. 18 Cal Poly at San Luis Obispo
- Feb. 22 Occidental at Eagle Rock

Campus Activities

At a recently held organizational meeting, the new State College English club set up the basic structure of their group.

The organization, according to acting chairman Donald Molin, will be one of the most active on campus. The club will be divided into two main groups, The Writers Group and the "Great Books Section". In the Writers Group the members plan to bring their own compositions to future meetings and have them criticized and discuss in a helpful manner.

The "Great Books Section" according to Chairman Mollin gives the opportunity for world-famous writings to be discussed in a give-and-take session.

According to Joan McLaughlin, vice chairman, "This is not confined to English majors only, but is open to all students who like to write."

LASC English professor C. K. Sandelin praised student organizers for their earnest and cooperative spirit in nstigating the English Club. "I feel certain," he continued, "that you have started an organization of definite aid to the college and to all student interested in writing and literature."

First order of business was the establishment of a constitutional committee to present a rough draft of the constitution for the next meeting.

All State College students are invited to submit their art work to the second annual Art Exhibit, sponsored by the Sigma Alpha Gamma, art society, to be presented from Jan. 13 to Feb. 10, in the State College library.

Art work consists of oil paintings, watercolors, sculptures, ink drawings, and other media in the art field.

The deadline for submitting material is Jan. 10. Rules of the exhibit will be posted in the art office, B.5., and on the bulletin board in the Fine Arts building. Prizes will be awarded for the outstanding contributions.

Alpha Theta Pi, social sorority, held its second annual good ticket for 6.00 or the stub of one for 1.25. For the golf fan the 24th Annual Los Angeles Open is set for this week, and it marks the return of Bantam Ben Hogan to the links since his automobile accident.

The State Basketball Five move into action at La Verne next Tuesday night and plays a return engagement with Pomona, Saturday night, January 14th in the C.C. gym. Let's be out there.

The following is an open letter from president Hanks which gives a brief summation of his feeling on the new proposal for Cooperation submitted by the Associated Students of State.

The old adage of 'two heads are better than one' has proven itself again with the following document giving evidence. Cooperation has been the keynote and the drumming point from City College for the last 2 1/2 years. The commissioners and Executive Council of State all sat in active session for 7 hours to work out a code of operations whereby we are sure we will have a feasible, workable solution to the "ever-present problems". The JAC is our answer! We say it's Cooperation!

If my Executive Council had no more to show for a semesters work than this Code of Operations, I would be proud of them.

It stands as a monument to and a spirit of cooperation.

State College ideals, prestige
Wayne Hanks
President

Joint Activities Committee

  2. These sub-committees subject to approval of the committee.
- E. To allocate fairly all bulletin board space.
- F. To release all publicity concerning all joint activities.
- G. In all matters not specifically covered in this document this Committee shall act in an advisory capacity only. This Committee may initiate any proposal for additional areas or programs of cooperation.
  1. Any proposal so initiated is subject to the ratification of each respective Student Body government.
- V. Finances of this Committee.
  - A. All finances of this committee shall be prorated on the basis of the number of Student Body Cards sold by the respective Student Bodies.
  - B. The Committee shall submit a semesterly budget to the Executive Council of each Student Body.
  - C. Any funds remaining at the end of each semester will revert to the respective Student Bodies at the same ratio as was budgeted.
- VI. Amendments.
  - A. This document may be amended only by an affirmative vote of the majority of the members of each Associated Student Body taken separately.
- VII. The provisions herein contained shall be considered in effect on the approval of this proposal by a simple majority of the voting members of each respective student body when presented to them at the next general elections

Alibi-ography for students

What to say —

When you are given an objective test; "It doesn't let you express yourself."

Then when you are given an essay test: "It's so vague. You don't know what's expected."

When you are given many minor tests: "Why not have a few big ones? This keeps you on edge all the time."

When you are given a few major tests: "Too much depends on each one."

When you are given no tests: "It's not fair. How can he possibly judge what we know?"

When every part of the subject is taken up in class: "Oh he just follows the book."

When you are asked to study a part of the subject by yourself: "Why, we never even discussed it!"

Sparks and Gurian lead in scoring

After seven collegiate games, Forward Jack Sparks is pacing the casaba cagers in the scoring with 61 points. Jack has countered with 21 field goals and 19 free throws for his point total. Following Sparks is Guard Marv Gurian with 53 points. Games figured in the scoring include Occidental, Chapman, Cal Tech, Pepperdine, Pomona, Whittier and Santa Barbara State. All these games were played on the 1949 side of the schedule. What will 1950 bring, only time will tell. The following is the complete scoring for all the players with field goals, free throws, and total points listed.
