No. 19

Campaigning enters last day

Student elections for 1951 are set for Thursday Jan. 4, and Friday Jan. 5. During the elections the polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8:15 p.m. in order to accommodate both the day and evening students holding Associated Student Cards.

In order to insure a representative voice in student government it is urged by John Cope, Commissioner of Elections, that everyone, both day and evening students, get out and vote for their favorite candidates.

Every student placing an application for an office was found eligible.

The voting polls will probably be located in front of the Administration building and the State College Library. Associated Student Cards must be shown in order to cast a vote so be sure to carry yours this week.

Carroll Wax plays at Junior Prom

Chase Hotel in Santa Monica will be the scene of the Junior Prom this Friday, Jan. 5, with Carroll Wax and his orchestra providing the music.

The theme of the dance is "Have Fun in the Fifth of '51" and the title of the dance is "THE PROM."

Bids are priced at $2.50 per couple and are now on sale by Juniors everywhere on the campus. Dress is semi-formal, meaning formals for the women and dark suits for the men.

Big feature of the evening will be the coronation of the Junior Prom Queen. Nominees are Nina Gercich, Betty Grossberg, Erma Bergstrom, Marian Tellander, Joanne Middleton, Donna Wheatly, Mary Bechely, and Katherine Canterbury.

The queen was chosen yesterday by a committee consisting of Jim Wurtz, Kay Skahill, Wanda Homan, Dominic Pulone, Ruthe Busch, and Ardel Prather, and under the direction of Committee Chairman, Mary Kuzmich.

Ed West was responsible for obtaining the orchestra, and Doug Andress was in charge of printing.

Chase Hotel is located at 1725 Ocean Front, Santa Monica. The hall will be open from 9 until 1.

"The Prom" is open to every student of the school. Bill Anton, junior class president, urged that every student see a ticket salesman immediately.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

REPRESENTATIVE-AT-LARGE CANDIDATES

David Strauss:

1. Complete representation of all students.
2. Continuation of expansion of activities and the active efficient representation of all students of State College in the Executive Council.

Arthur Black:

To keep a finger on the pulse of the Student Body. To represent by my presence in the Executive Council the wishes of the Student Body. To maintain close contact with the members of the Student Body at State College.

Marion Yandell:

More rigid controls of student funds — more thorough student representation.

Bill Dawson:

1. Help the Student Body President to consolidate the Student Body to a much greater degree by:
 - a. Keeping all students informed about school activities through interesting meetings and liberal use of the College Times.
 - b. Creating more committees to plan greater social activities, thereby allowing more students to participate in school activities.
2. Establish more school tradition through annual lectures, talent shows, and other cultural activities.
3. Cooperate with the Student Body President to:
 - a. Do everything possible to make this a truly great State College.
 - b. Make the Student Body social events the best in the history of State.

WOMEN'S REPRESENTATIVE CANDIDATES

Irma Tadini:

It will be my purpose to represent the desires and interests of the women students as fully as possible. I shall promote women's activities and encourage participation in student activities.

Betty Dyche:

To serve the women of L.A. State College to the best of my ability. To uphold and broaden the privileges of women of L.A.S.C.

MEN'S REPRESENTATIVE CANDIDATES

4. On campus practice teaching center for teacher training and gathering of educational data.

5. Student book exchange for used books.

J. Douglas Stitt:

To improve the College Times to the satisfaction of the student body, to work for a better method of handling and allotting student body funds, to work for the greater participation and closer cooperation of the student body in school-sponsored activities, and to cooperate with all concerned for the advancement and betterment of Los Angeles State College.

Liz McLaughlin:

I shall try to represent honestly the students and work for their best interests. I shall support the student activities and congenial faculty-student relationships.

Gene Saunders:

1. Representation of students in, regardless of sex, Student Government.
2. More offices in the student government for interested students.
3. Recognition for State College in athletics by better publicity in city papers.
4. Recognition of school publications.
 - a. Statement.
 - b. Pitchfork.

Robert Guinn:

Fair and equal representation of entire student body. To promote those activities that are of benefit to all students, not any specific groups. Equal distribution of funds for all activities.

Bob Miner:

The planning of a well balanced, intelligent budget. Representation of the best interest of all the students of L.A.S.C.

Sheldon Munach:

1. Attempt to further develop the ideals of LASC, and I propose to support all activities desired by the student body, or for the student body's welfare.
2. Promote extended athletic competition in the C.C.A.A., and the promotion and maintenance of a football team for LASC.
3. Advocate that the College Times be dedicated to the notification of the student body as to the activities of the students and faculty, rather than the promotion of commercial agencies and the slanderous critiques of individuals.
4. Urge the establishment of a Graduate school for Los Angeles State College of Applied Arts and Sciences.

JUNIOR CLASS

PRESIDENT

Gene Vassar:

1. Consolidate the Junior Class to a greater extent by:
 - a. Sponsoring inter-class competition between Juniors and Seniors.

2. More extensive and more effective publicity to give State College an identity and prestige all its own.
3. More and consistent participation in athletics.
4. Support and promotion for "Statement".

Thomas J. Baer:

Do my job faithfully and well. Keep my eye on the funds; and secure a good reason and genuine proof for student use of funds.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Al Rosenstein:

1. To achieve better relations and consequently give more prestige to the L.A.S.C. graduating classes through the use of the commercial press.
2. Urge the establishing of a graduate school which will offer the Master's Degree to meet the needs of the graduating seniors who cannot afford to attend the graduate schools in the Los Angeles Area.
3. To obtain more and better senior activities for the students to participate in by making the community more aware of L.A.S.C.
4. To maintain the present system of separate graduations for State and City College.
5. The formation of a policy permitting the students to wear a hood denoting the field of study you have received your degree in, as is the policy of other colleges in the L.A. area.

STUDENT CONTACT OFFICER

Edward Shields:

Promote the interest of the senior class in L.A.S.C. activities.

GRADUATE CLASS

VICE PRESIDENT

Morton Friedman:

1. The graduate class must have more representation and voice in the student government.

2. State College must be known throughout this area academically and athletically speaking.
3. I will endeavor to aid and assist the class president in any and all matters pertaining to the graduate class and the school at large, for its betterment.

Bob Johnson:

To make the Graduate Class of Los Angeles State College a more active and participating group in college activities.

Devils corral Mustangs to win State tournament

Coach Sax Elliot's, fighting L. A. State College quintet, played a rude host to seven other cage five's as the Diablos upset the pre-tourney favorite, the Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, Mustangs 59-52 to walk off with top honors in the first annual California State College Tournament held December 19-21 in the local gym.

In the opening round of play the Elliotmen proved the master of Cal Poly of San Dimas 73-42. Everybody scored at least two points with Bill McNaught pacing the victors with 12.

In the semifinals the next night, the Devils drew the big Sacramento State Hornets conquerors of Humboldt State 73-35 in the first round. It was here that L.A.'s Dick Green turned in his best performance to-date and paced the locals to a hard fought 62-52 win. The 6'4 center limited burly 230 pound, 6'4. Hornet pivotman Al McKayden to a lone bucket and his replacement Jack Sarvis to four free throws. On top of this Green had red in eyes and bucketed 20 pts. Marv Gurian turned in a top floor game and hit for 13 markers.

The two teams were deadlocked 27 all at the halftime buzzer, but the locals really caught fire as a unit and won going away from the Northerners. Regis "I'm really only 30 year's old" Hurley led the Capitol City attack with a dozen plus one.

The night of December 21 was a great one for Coach Sax Elliot, his 12 Diablo cagers and for L.A. State College, as the Vermont Avenue entry prepared to vie against Coach Ed Jorgenson's classy Cal Poly cagers. The two teams battled back and forth in the first half with the locals forging ahead 29-23 due mainly to Dick Green's 15 points. Green failed to score in the second half.

In the second stanza, the Elliotmen took up where they left off and built up a 42-32 lead in the first 10 minutes. Dick Schlesinger was the big noise for the Diablos with six points at this point. The game was iced with some six minutes left with the L.A. cagers leading 49-35. Paced by the great Ed Nichols the Mustangs tried hard to close fast, but they ran out of gas as the Devils early lead was insurmountable. Nichols, the flashy Negro forward, wound up the game's leading scorer with 18 points.

At the conclusion of the tournament an all star five was selected. The forwards were Ed Nichols of Cal Poly and Marv Gurian of L. A. Ed Nichols by the way received a tremendous ovation from the crowd for his great inspiring play. Dick Green of L.A. was given the spot at center. The guards were Bob Tomlinson of Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, and LaVerne's Daryl Brandt.

Brandt paced his team to a 61-45 consolation championship over Cal Poly of San Dimas. Brandt wound up the tournament's leading scorer with 54 points, 26 against Cal Poly. Ed Nichols of San Luis Obispo netted 50, Larry Peterson of San Dimas was third with 46 and Dick Green had 45.

Bill Schroeder, managing director of the Helms Athletic Foundation, presented the first place trophy donated by Helms to Ed Goerjian team captain. Schroeder commended Coach Sax Elliot for the wonderful job of bringing these teams together for the tournament. Dr. Howard S. McDonald, State College president, presented the consolation trophy to Daryl Brandt on behalf of his La Verne team, and the second place award to Ed Nichols of Cal Poly. Dr. McDonald concluded that it was a pleasure to have the visiting schools here and expressed a fervent desire that they would return for next year's tournament.

Faculty commence student advisement

Starting tomorrow, January 3, faculty members will begin program advisement for all students who expect to enroll for day classes next term announced Mr. Williams, registrar. All such students should report tomorrow, Thursday, or Friday to the chairman in their major field to arrange for an appointment with their adviser.

It is extremely important that the appointment be scheduled this week in order to assure adequate counseling for all students by the time final examinations begin. Here is the procedure to follow:

This week you should report to your chairman for assignment of an appointment with your adviser.

When you meet with your adviser he will assist you in making out a program for the next term. The adviser has your permit to register and you must have his signature if you intend to take more than 5 units in day classes next term. The adviser will sign your permit (which will also bear the list of approved courses you select and return it to the Registrar. You can pick it up at Station I during registration.

The class schedule will be available at the Registrar's office this week; with it will be complete instructions for registration. Here is the list of chairmen and their office members:

- Art—Dr. Daywalt (B33)
- Bus. & Econ—Dr. Simpson (Ad220)
